Our mission:

To inspire the way forward
by transforming humanity's waste into renewable energy resources.

We believe...

- What we can accomplish is bounded only by our imagination.
We encourage a sense of possibility in others with our breakthroughs and attitude, starting always with the premise of it can be done.

- It takes different ways of looking at things.
Our perspective is broadened by bringing a diverse mix of talents together, supporting the discovery of new directions and better ideas.

- Transparency results in excellence.
We openly share our plans, progress, and finished work because it leads to clearer thinking and continuous improvement.

- Well-being is foundational to realizing our full potential.
Our people's safety and welfare are essential to their professional development and to the strength of the team.

- Put the right people together and they will flourish.
Our team dynamic is built on the admiration we have for those around us, elevating our performance to a higher level.

- Innovation for the common good is a tremendous opportunity.
We are passionate about making a meaningful difference and that is why we are here.

- Authenticity is required.
We carefully choose to work with people who are genuine, holding ourselves to this standard in everything we do.
